5. Selection process

The order of appearance of semi-finalists and finalists will be determined by a random draw. During the preliminary round, the candidates will appear in alphabetical order, starting with a letter determined by a random draw.

a) The preliminary round will take place on March 25 at the Conservatory of Esch/Alzette, 54 avenue des Terres Rouges. The preliminary round requires candidates to perform a recital of no more than 20 minutes in duration which includes the compulsory work: 2 Preludes: ost-ludium and loco nox from the «Präludien for mandolin solo» by Carlo Domeniconi available from september 15 (Ed.»Hans-Gerhard-Fey-Verlag ex tempore") mail to: hgfe1@gmail.com and an original sonata/piece of either the baroque or classical period. The piece will be played in its entirety; one or two movements will not suffice.

An international jury will select those who are to proceed to the semi-final round. The list of semi-finalists will be announced in alphabetical order.

b) The semi-final round will take place on March 26.

The semi-final round requires candidates to perform a recital of no more than 20 minutes in duration which includes the compulsory work: to choose between the following preludes:

Preludio I , III or X by Raffaele Calace (Ed. Trekel) (Ed. Marga Wilden-Hüsgen) and one or two other works of the candidate's choice from the original mandolin repertoire.

The jury will select those candidates who will proceed to the final round. The list of finalists will be announced in alphabetical order.

c) The final round will take place on March 27.

The final round requires candidates to perform a recital of no more than 30 minutes in duration which includes the imposed work "Concerto" pour mandoline solo, orchestre à plectre, harpe et ensemble de percussions, written especially for the Competition by composer Sébastien Paci, available from september 15 (info@trekel.de) and one or two other works of the candidate's choice from the original mandolin repertoire.

At the end of the final round, the audience will be invited to elect the winner of the «People's Choice Award». Following the final round, the president of the jury will announce the names of the winners of the «International Solo-Mandolin Competition Luxembourg 2016».

All three rounds of the Competition are open to the general public.

6. Candidates may perform with or without scores. The jury will not only consider the quality of the performance but also the technical level and the appeal of the program presented by each candidate. If necessary, the EP will provide a piano or a harpsichord.

7. No member of the jury is allowed to evaluate one of their own students during the Competition. The president of the jury must be notified before the beginning of the preliminary round if such a situation might arise. In this case, the artistic director has the right to vote instead of the jury member in question.
